Pikmykid

Dismissal Automation

How a dismissal automation tool like Pikmykid helps make student dismissal more efficient and a safer process daily.

✕ WITHOUT AUTOMATION

✓ WITH AUTOMATION

PRIOR TO DISMISSAL

WITHOUT AUTOMATION	WITH AUTOMATION
Front office answers parent calls and messages teachers with dismissal changes.	Parents make dismissal changes in the app, which automatically updates the teacher's list.
Teachers manually track changes of the student's dismissal plans.	Teachers' dismissal lists are updated instantly with changes.
If after school activities are canceled staff call each parent.	If after school activities are canceled staff send one message to all impacted parents.

DURING DISMISSAL

WITHOUT AUTOMATION	WITH AUTOMATION
Dismissal coordinator announces via walkie talkies to send out students when parents arrive.	Parent's arrival is announced through the app.
Teachers listen for announcements made to release each student.	Teacher sees on their screen as soon as the parent or bus arrives for each student.
Dismissal coordinator hopes the pickup person is allowed to pick up the student.	The pickup person is automatically verified through the app.
Dismissal coordinator helps the student into the car.	Dismissal coordinator helps the student into the car and marks them as dismissed in the portal.
Parent hopes the teacher saw the dismissal change note.	Parent gets a notification their kids were safely dismissed.
Calls need to be made to parents if a bus is running late.	If a bus is running late, a notification can be sent to parents via the app.

POST DISMISSAL

WITHOUT AUTOMATION	WITH AUTOMATION
Principal assumes all students have been safely dismissed.	Principal can accurately see when every student was dismissed.
Principals rely on teacher's manual reports of who, how and when a student was dismissed.	Principals can pull reports of who, how and when a student was dismissed.

Transform your end of day chaos into a stress-free and ultra safe experience for staff, parents and students with Pikmykid's award-winning school dismissal manager.

REQUEST A DEMO